Notice No - 654

As directed by the University, offline regular classes of Sem- 2, 4 and 6 (promoted) of our students already started. Teachers are regularly attending to class room to take your classes. However, the attendance of students is very less and even after repeated notification you are not reporting college regularly. Accordingly, students of these semester are informed to attend your classes regularly. Your attendance is highly essential to appear in the internal assessment of next semester. You will not be allowed to appear in the IA exam and exam form fill for the next University exam if you do not attend college regularly and seriously. Your attendance is digitally recorded everyday by respective teacher in ERP. Before IA exam your digitally recorded attendance will be sent to your personal mobile no and your parents will be called by the undersigned to clarify your less attendance. The authority will not be responsible if any of you are not eligible to appear in the final Unvi. Exam. Note this notification with serious attention.
